

Elected Officials

The ADTC is proud of our local elected officials and the work they do to represent us:

US Representative John Olver

Congressman John W. Olver has represented the 1st Congressional District since June 1991. Currently he is assistant whip and serves on on the house appropriations committee.

Congressional District Represented:

The 1st Congressional District

Spanning Berkshire, Hampden, Hampshire, Franklin, Worcester and Middlesex Counties -- is the largest congressional district in Massachusetts.

Learn more about the 1st Congressional District...

Visit U.S. Rep. John Olver's web site...

State Senator Stanley Rosenberg

Senator Rosenberg has held many leadership positions in the State Senate. He is presently President Pro Tempore and chair of the Senate Ways and Means Committee. He is a particularly strong advocate of public higher education in Massachusetts.

Districts Represented:

Hampshire County:

Northampton, Amherst, Belchertown (Precincts A and D), Hadley, Hatfield, Pelham, South Hadley.

Franklin County:

Bernardston, Buckland, Colrain, Deerfield, Erving, Gill, Greenfield, Leverett, Leyden, Montague, New Salem, Northfield, Shelburne, Shutesbury, Sunderland, Wendell and Whately.

Visit State Senator Rosenberg's web site...

State Representative Ellen Story

Representative Story is currently serving her sixth term in the Massachusetts State Legislature. She sits on the Steering Policy and Scheduling committee, the Homeland Security and Federal Affairs Committee, Mental Health, and Arts and Tourism. She works tirelessly for the interests and values of her Amherst/Granby district.

District Represented:

Third Hampshire:

Consisting of the towns of Amherst and Granby, both in the county of Hampshire.

Visit State Rep. Ellen Story's Mass.gov page...

Councillor Thomas T. Merrigan - Eight District

The Massachusetts Governor's Council, also known as the Executive Council, is composed of eight individuals elected from districts, and the Lt. Governor who serves ex officio. The eight councillors are elected from their respective districts every two years.

The Council generally meets at noon on Wednesdays in its State House Chamber, next to the Governor's Office, to act on such issues as payments from the state treasury, criminal pardons and commutations, and approval of gubernatorial appointments; such as judges, notaries and justices of the peace (see additional information at Mass.gov).

District Served:

Eight District

Visit Councillor Merrigan's company web site...

Hampshire Register of Probate David E. Sullivan

Serves as the Register of Probate for Hampshire County, presiding over the Probate and Family Court. Services of the Probate and Family court include court cases concerning domestic relations, adoption, paternity, and estates.

County Served:

Hampshire

Visit the Hampshire Probate & Family Court web site...

