

March 31 Amherst Elections: Four Boards and Committees Have Contested Seats

Contributed by Hampshire Gazette

Candidates line up for seats in Amherst Elections

Wednesday, February 11, 2009

AMHERST

- Four boards and committees, including the School Committee and library trustees, will have contested races at the March 31 town elections.

But unlike last year, when five residents competed for two slots on the Select Board, incumbent Aaron A. Hayden, of 1491 South East St., who won election to the post in November, is the only candidate seeking the full three-year term.

Read the story in the Gazette \(subscription required\)...